1. Who we are

This website is operated by Eurosat Distribution Limited which is registered in the UK with company number 2247629. We are the "Data Controller" for the purposes of applicable data protection laws and this Privacy Policy.

Eurosat Distribution Limited trades as both Eurosat London and Eurosat Eastern. This privacy notice is issued on behalf of Eurosat Distribution Limited as a whole, so when we mention "Eurosat Distribution Limited", "we", "us" or "our" in this privacy notice, we are referring both to Eurosat Distribution Limited itself, which is the organisation responsible for processing your data, together with any trading names that we use. Eurosat Distribution Limited is the data controller and is responsible for this website.

2. What does this Privacy Policy cover?

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use and share personal data which is:

- Collected or received when you use our website (<https://www.eurosatlondon.com> known as the "Site")
- Collected or received when you make enquiries about or purchase our products

"Personal data" means data which is connected to a living individual who can be identified from that data, either by itself or when combined with other data likely to come into the possession of the data controller and can include information collected by certain cookies or tracking technologies.

"Processing" includes a wide range of activity, for example collecting, storing, deleting, using, combining and sharing personal data.

3. What types of personal data do we collect?

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you which we have grouped together follows:

- Identity data: first name, last name, username
- Contact data: phone number, email address, billing address, delivery address (if different)
- Financial data: if you choose to place an order with us, we will need to collect card details for payment of products
- Technical data: internet protocol (IP) address of the computer or device you're using to browse our Site, browser name and version, operating system,
- Usage data (our website): information about any of your visits to our Site, including the full Uniform Resource Locator (URL) web address of any webpages on our Site that you may view (including date and time of visit); products you view; page response times, download errors, length of visits to certain pages, page interaction information (such as scrolling, clicks, and mouse-overs), methods used to browse away from the page

4. How do we collect your personal data?

We use different methods to collect data from and about you including through:

Direct interactions:

You may give us your Identity, Contact and Financial Data by filling in forms or by corresponding with us by post, phone, email or otherwise. This includes personal data you provide when you:

- create an account on our website;
- subscribe to our publications;
- request details about our products(marketing) to be sent to you;
- place an order for products;
- apply for an extended warranty for our products
- contact us for technical support; or
- give us some feedback.

As a matter of ensuring optimum customer service levels at no point will any financial data that you may give us over the phone be recorded.

Automated technologies: As you interact with our Site, some technical data about your device, browsing actions and browsing patterns is collected. This is done by using services such as Google Analytics.

When you make an incoming call into us, the telephone number from which you were calling will be recorded on the systems of our phone service provider.

If you visit any of our offices or other work locations, footage of you may be captured and stored on our Closed Circuit TV or similar video systems ("CCTV"). CCTV is primarily used for maintaining the security of our property and premises and for preventing and helping with the investigation of crime.

Third parties or publicly available sources. We may receive personal data about you from various third parties such as Identity and Contact Data from publicly available sources [such as Companies House and the Electoral Register based inside the EU].

MARKETING

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising.

PROMOTIONAL OFFERS FROM US

We may use your Identity, Contact, Technical and Usage Data to form a view on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which products, services and offers may be relevant to you and for us to communicate to you (we call this marketing).

You will receive marketing communications from us if you have requested information from us or purchased goods from us or if you provided us with your details when you entered a competition or registered for a promotion and in each case if you have opted into and not subsequently opted out of receiving that marketing.

OPTING OUT

You can ask us or third parties to stop sending you marketing messages at any time by contacting us at <https://www.eurosatlondon.com/contact-us>

CHANGE OF PURPOSE

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us at <https://www.eurosatlondon.com/contact-us>.

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law

6. Cookies and other tracking technology

When you visit the Site, our servers automatically record Technical Data, which your browser sends whenever you visit a website, and Website Usage Data.

This may include information such as your IP address, browser type or the domain from which you are visiting, the webpages you visit, the search terms you use, and any advertisements on which you click. For most users accessing the Internet from an Internet service provider, your IP address will be different every time you log on.

We use this data to monitor the use of the Site and of our Service, and for the Site' technical administration. We do not associate your IP address with any other information to identify you personally, except in case of violation of our Site Terms of Service.

Like many website, we also use "cookie" technology to better understand how you interact with the Site and our Service, to monitor aggregate usage by our users and web traffic routing on the Site, and to improve the Site and our Service.

By continuing to use our Site without disabling them, you consent to our use of cookies.

A cookie is a small data file that we transfer to your computer's hard disk. We use the following types of cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies: These are cookies that are required for the operation of our Site. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our Site, use a shopping cart or make use of e-billing services.
- Analytical/performance cookies: They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our Site when they are using them. This helps us to improve the way our Site work, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.
- Functionality cookies: These are used to recognise you when you return to our Site. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).
- Targeting cookies: These cookies record your visit to our Site, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our Site and the advertising displayed on them more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

Some of these cookies are "session" cookies and others are "persistent" cookies. A session cookie enables certain features of the Site and our service and is deleted from your computer when you disconnect from or leave the Site. A persistent cookie remains after you close your browser and may be used by your browser on subsequent visits to the Site. Persistent cookies can be removed by following your web browser help file directions.

Most Internet browsers automatically accept cookies. You can instruct your browser, by editing its options, to stop accepting cookies or to prompt you before accepting a cookie from the website you visit. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all or parts of our Site.

Except for essential cookies, all cookies will expire after a maximum period of 2 years, although you may manually clear them from your browser at any time

7. How we disclose your personal data

We may have to share your personal data with the parties set out below for the purposes set out in the table in section 5 above.

- Internal Third Parties. We may share your personal data with other companies in the same corporate group as Eurosat Distribution Limited, if doing such is an essential part of supplying you with the products or services that you have ordered from us. The Corporate Group companies are;
 - Eurosat Holdings Limited
 - Eurosat Distribution Limited
 - Eurosat Distribution (Midlands) Limited
 - Manhattan TV Limited
 - National Broadband Limited T/A 4G Internet.
- External Third Parties:
 - Service providers acting as processors who provide IT and system administration services.
 - Analytics and search engine providers that assist us in the improvement and optimisation of our Site.

- Professional advisers acting as processors or controllers including bankers, lawyers, auditors and insurers based who provide banking, legal, consultancy, accounting and insurance services.
- HM Revenue & Customs, regulators and other authorities based [in the United Kingdom] if required to do so by applicable law, or if it is in our legitimate interest to do so.
- Third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer, or merge parts of our business or our assets.

Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this privacy notice.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

- to enforce or apply our terms of this website and other agreements; or to protect the rights, property, or safety of Manhattan, our customers, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction

8. Where we store your data and international transfers

The data that we collect from you may be stored on our secure Internal servers or it may be transferred to and stored at a number of destinations within the European Economic Area ("EEA").

We may also transfer your personal data to a destination outside the EEA. Whenever we transfer your personal data out of the EEA, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:

- We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European Commission.
- Where we use certain service providers, we may use specific contracts approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe.
- Where we use providers based in the US, we may transfer data to them if they are part of the Privacy Shield which requires them to provide similar protection to personal data shared between the Europe and the US.

In exceptional circumstances, where there is no option to put adequate safeguards in place, we may rely on one of the derogations provided by Article 49 of the EU General Data Protection Regulation.

Please contact us at <https://www.eurosatlondon.com/contact-us> if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data out of the EEA.

9. How long we keep your personal data

We will only keep your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which we collected it, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, together with any applicable legal requirements.

10. How we keep your data secure

Eurosat Distribution Limited is very concerned about safeguarding the confidentiality of your personally identifiable information. Data collected in the UK is held in accordance with the Data Protection Act. We employ administrative, physical and electronic measures designed to protect your information from unauthorized access. All information you provide to us is stored on our secure servers or on the servers of suppliers that we have chosen to use, all of whom will be fully GDPR-compliant.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to our Site; any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorized access.

We will make any legally-required disclosures of any breach of the security, confidentiality, or integrity of your electronically stored personal data to you via email or conspicuous posting on our Site in the most expedient time possible and without unreasonable delay, consistent with (i) the legitimate needs of law enforcement or (ii) any measures necessary to determine the scope of the breach and restore the reasonable integrity of the data system.

11. Your Rights

Depending on the circumstances, you have a number of rights under Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (the "GDPR"). You can also exercise your rights at any time by contacting us at <https://www.eurosatlondon.com/contact-us> – see more information below on what we will require from you before we can respond to such requests.

- Right to object to direct marketing. You have the right to ask us not to process your personal data for marketing purposes, including profiling (eg. tracking your usage of our Site) to the extent that it is related to direct marketing. We will usually inform you (before collecting your data) if we intend to use your data for such purposes or if we intend to disclose your information to any third party for such purposes. Within a reasonable time after receipt and consideration of your objection we will no longer process your personal data for direct marketing purposes. You can exercise your right to prevent such processing by ticking certain boxes on the forms we use to collect your data, or by contacting us at any time.
- Right of access to information. The GDPR gives you the right to find out whether we are processing your personal data and, where that is the case, to receive a copy of the personal data we process and information on:

- why we are processing it;
- the categories of personal data we process about you;
- the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed;
- where possible, how long we plan to keep your personal data or the criteria we use to determine that period;
- information on your rights under the GDPR;
- information on where we received your data from if we did not receive it directly from you, and
- if we transfer your personal data outside of the EEA, details of the appropriate safeguards we have used to protect your personal data and uphold your data protection rights.

We will not charge you for complying with your request and providing you with a first copy. Any further copies may be subject to a reasonable administrative fee. Where your personal data is inseparable from the personal data of others, we reserve the right to redact or withhold it if it will infringe the rights of those third parties.

- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data
If we process your personal data on the grounds of your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. This will not affect the legality of our processing of your data up until the point at which you withdraw your consent. Please also note that we may still need to process your data on other grounds, for example to fulfil a contract with you or as required by law.
- The right to object to processing of your personal data
You have the right to object to us processing of your personal data if we are using the lawful grounds of 'legitimate interest' or are maintaining that the processing is in the public interest. When we receive your objection, we will assess our legal grounds for processing and will stop processing the data if we cannot demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds to continue processing the data.
- The right to request the restriction of your personal data
You have the right to ask us to restrict our processing of (ie. stop using) your personal data if you think that it is inaccurate, that we are processing it illegally, or that we no longer need it for the purposes for which it was collected. While we consider your request, we will stop processing your data within a reasonable time from the date we receive your request. We will notify you of our decision and any justifications for continuing to process your data as soon as we can.
- The right to request amendment or erasure of your personal data
You have the right to request the amendment of your personal data at any time if it is inaccurate. If it is incomplete, you have the right to have the information completed, considering the purposes of processing. You also have the right to require us to delete your personal data as soon as possible where one of the following applies:
 1. the personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected or otherwise processed;
 2. you withdraw your consent to us processing your personal data and we have no other legal grounds for processing it;
 3. the personal data has been unlawfully processed;
 4. the personal data must be erased for compliance with a UK or EU legal obligation on us;

5. the personal data relates to a child under 13.

- The right to data portability

You have the right to receive personal data which you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. You have the further right to transmit that data to another data controller, if we are processing it on the grounds that you have consented to that processing or because it was necessary in order to perform a contract with you, and if we have no other legal bases for processing it.

- The right to complain to the Supervisory Authority

If you feel that we have processed your data unfairly or unlawfully, you have the right to complain about us to the relevant Supervisory Authority. In the UK this is the Information Commissioner's Office. You can contact the Information Commissioner's Office here:

<https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/>.

To the extent that we can and that it is proportionate to do so, we will communicate the amendment, restriction or erasure of your personal data to parties who have already received it and ask them to respect your wishes.

You can exercise any of your rights at any time by contacting us at <https://www.eurosatlondon.com/contact-us> . Please state clearly in your email which rights you are seeking to enforce, a full description of the information or type of information that you are writing about, and include details which will confirm your identity, such as your data of birth and a scan of your passport or driving licence. This is so that we can keep your data secure. We aim to respond to your requests as soon as we can and we will keep you informed of our decisions and reasons for those decisions.

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

Time limit to respond

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made several requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

12. Links to External Files & website

Our Site may contain links to external files and website. The fact that we link to a file or website is not an endorsement, authorization or representation of our affiliation with it. We do not exercise control over third party files or website. These other website may place their own cookies or other files on your computer, collect data or solicit personally identifiable information from you. Other site follow different rules regarding the use or disclosure of the personally identifiable information you submit to them. We encourage you to read the privacy policies or statements of other website you may visit.

13. Our Policy Towards Children

Our Site are not aimed at persons under 16. If you are a parent or guardian and you become aware that your child has provided us with personally identifiable information without your consent, please contact us at <https://www.eurosatlondon.com/contact-us> . We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under 16. If we become aware that a child under 16 has provided us with personal identifiable Information, we will delete such information from our files.

14. Changes to this Policy or to your personal data

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time for any reason; each version will apply to information collected while it was in place. We will notify you of any material changes to our Privacy Policy by posting the new Privacy Policy on our Site and where appropriate, by emailing you. You are advised to consult this Privacy Policy regularly for any changes. This Privacy Policy is effective as of 25/05/2018.

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us.

15. Contact us
